

Nurse Delegation: Diabetes

Program Description

Discover how to confidently review diabetes health conditions with your residents and address the complications associated with diabetes management. From the warning signs of hypoglycemia and hyperglycemia to the appropriate responses to treating these conditions, you will learn all aspect of different types diabetes medications and insulin, including how to safely draw up, administer, and document insulin administration.

This program meets the 2018 Washington State DSHS-approved mandatory "Nursing Delegation for Nursing Assistants: Special Focus on Diabetes" training for your Medication Aides/ Medication Techs requirement for medication administration.

Outline

All About Diabetes
All About Insulin
All About Insulin Injections

Who Should Attend?

All Med Aides, Caregivers, CNA, HCA, NAR and others in long term care settings desiring to accept delegated tasks.

Contact Hours: 3.25

Pharmacotherapeutic hours: 0.0

Skill Type: Long Term Care

Cost: $89

For Registration

www.AcuteCareEd.com/live-programs

Acute Care Education
7200 NE 41st Street, Suite 206
Vancouver, WA 98662
360-258-1838

Support@AcuteCareEd.com

High Quality ANCC Approved Continuing Education for All